

THE EDEN FILE: AN UNSOLVED MYSTERY

The story is familiar: a garden, two trees, a serpent, and a forbidden fruit. But the official account is riddled with questions. It reads less like history and more like the scene of a crime where the key evidence has been misinterpreted for millennia.

Our investigation begins by re-examining the facts.

WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN THE GARDEN OF EDEN?

THE OFFICIAL STORY DOESN'T ADD UP

THE MOTIVE OF GOD

Would a loving Parent place a deadly, attractive trap where His children could easily reach it?

THE NATURE OF SIN

How can eating a physical fruit cause a spiritual sin that is then inherited through lineage?

THE NATURE OF SIN

How can eating a physical fruit cause a spiritual sin that is then inherited through lineage?

"Not what goes into the mouth defiles a man, but what comes out of the mouth, this defiles a man."
- Matthew 15:11

THE MOTIVE OF MAN

Adam and Eve knew the penalty was death. They would not risk everything for a mere delicacy. The temptation must have been extraordinarily powerful.

THE "FRUIT" WAS NOT A LITERAL FRUIT.
IT WAS A SYMBOL.

Exhibit A: The “Weapons” Were People

The Tree of Life

- Symbolizes a man who has fully realized the ideal of creation: Perfected Adam.
- It represents the ultimate hope of humankind (Prov. 13:12).
- Jesus came as the second Tree of Life.

The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil

- Symbolizes a woman who has fully realized the ideal of creation: Perfected Eve.
- Stood beside the Tree of Life as Adam's counterpart.

Exhibit B: Profiling the Perpetrator

Suspect Profile

Identity: Known as 'the serpent.'

Capabilities:

- Able to converse with humans.
- Possessed knowledge of God's Will.
- Acted with intent to cause the Fall of spiritual beings.

Conclusion: This profile does not match an animal. The being symbolized by the serpent must have been a spiritual being.

“The Serpent Was an Angel”

Cross-Referenced Evidence

- Revelation 12:9: “The great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the Devil and Satan...”
- II Peter 2:4: “God did not spare the angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell...”
- Jude 6-7: Links the angels who “left their proper dwelling” with those who “acted immorally and indulged in unnatural lust.”

Verdict: The serpent who tempted Eve was an angel who was originally created for a good purpose, but fell.

The Crime: A Telltale Sign

Before the Fall: “Adam and Eve were both naked, and were not ashamed.” (Gen. 2:25)

After the Fall: “...they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves aprons.” (Gen. 3:7)

Investigative Logic

If the crime was eating, they would have hidden their mouths or hands. People conceal the source of their fault. Their act of covering their lower parts reveals that their sexual parts were the source of their shame and the instruments of their sin.

The Key That Unlocks the Mystery

“All the emotions and sensations felt between a person and a spirit are exactly the same as those felt during contact between two earthly people.”

“Undoubtedly, a sexual union between an angel and a person is possible.”

Exposition of the Divine Principle

The Crime, Act I: The Spiritual Fall

Perpetrator: The Archangel, Lucifer

Motive: Jealousy. Lucifer felt he was receiving less of God's love after Adam and Eve were created. He desired to be the channel of love in the human world as he was in the angelic world.

The Act: Driven by this desire, Lucifer seduced Eve. The power of their 'unprincipled love' led them to consummate an illicit sexual relationship on the spiritual plane.

The Crime, Act II: The Physical Fall

Eve

Adam

Untimely Physical Love

Perpetrator: Eve.

Motive: Filled with dread from the spiritual fall, Eve sought to return to God by uniting with Adam, her intended spouse.

The Act: Eve, now playing the role of the tempter, seduced a still-immature Adam. Their untimely conjugal relationship constituted the physical fall.

The Consequence: Through this act, Adam inherited all the fallen elements Eve had received from the Archangel.

The Root of Sin Was Not an Apple, but an Illicit Love

The Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil symbolized Eve. The Fruit of that tree symbolized Eve's Love. To Eat the Fruit meant to consummate a love relationship and receive the nature of one's partner. Eve consummated a Satan-centered love, receiving his evil nature and multiplying an evil lineage. This is the root of original sin.

The Aftermath: A World Under New Sovereignty

- Humanity's Lineage: Humankind became the children of Satan, not God.
 - Evidence: “You are of your father the devil.” (John 8:44)
- The World's Ruler: This world came under Satan's sovereignty.
 - Evidence: Satan is called “the ruler of this world” (John 12:31) and “the god of this world” (II Cor. 4:4).
- Creation's State: All of creation now exists under this illicit dominion.
 - Evidence: “...the whole creation has been groaning in travail together until now.” (Romans 8:22)

The Criminal's Signature: Four Traits of Our Fallen Nature

Failing to Take God's Standpoint:

The Archangel was jealous of Adam instead of loving him from God's perspective.

Reversing Dominion: The angel, meant to be governed, dominated Eve. Eve, meant to be guided by Adam, dominated him.

Leaving One's Proper Position:

He desired a position of love that was not his, causing him to overreach.

Multiplying the Criminal Act: Eve did not keep her sin to herself but spread it by inducing Adam to fall.

The Final Question: Why Didn't God Intervene?

1. To Maintain the Principle of Creation:

God established that humans must perfect themselves by fulfilling their own portion of responsibility. To interfere would be to violate His own Principle.

2. That God Alone Be the Creator:

Intervening in an unprincipled act would give it value and legitimacy. This would effectively make Satan a co-creator of a new, evil principle.

3. To Make Humanity the True Lord of Creation:

To rule creation, humanity must earn its creatorship by reaching perfection through its own will. God would not grant unqualified rulers their authority.

The Case Closed, The Story Begins

The mystery of the Fall is not an ancient puzzle.
It is the origin story of our present reality—the source of the evil forces that drive us against our own ‘original mind.’

Understanding the root of sin is the first necessary step to eradicating it.
The investigation into our past is the beginning of the journey to restore our future.
